PROPOSAL #1

TONY DANIELS-PRESIDENT 1/11/97

THE ADODI MUUSE host THE SOUL ASYLUM ? ^{name change}

A poets cafe, a madd phat occasion for us to premiere our works and fine tune them, while gaining exposure and generating revenue. We can do this as a joint venture with the lambda center and split the proceeds, or donate a percentage of our earnings to the center. This is an event that can be done in those months where we are not booked heavily, and have the time to put a dynamic performance together. There are several things for us to consider;

1. Cover/ donation $10.00
2. Limited seating $50-60
3. Guest artist
 - A. Poet(s) Tony
 - B. Visual Artist - Kathy Williams, Cathrine Alston, WARREN Fletcher
 - C. Musicians - Tape
 - D. Payment for guest artist ?
4. Refreshments? ✓ TONY
5. Budget

* PLEASE NOTE

If there are other places that would better suit us(places that already have established clientele , sound and or lighting , a stage and a small menu) then we can and probably should consider them as possible venues as well.

Vendor - Kathy $25.00

Dear Mother
I have just received your letter of the 12th and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope this letter finds you the same. I have been thinking of you very much lately. I hope you are happy and healthy. I have been very busy lately but I will try to write to you more often. I love you very much and hope you will write to me soon. I am your affectionate son, John. I have been thinking of you very much lately. I hope you are happy and healthy.
I have been very busy lately but I will try to

People of Color Community Network

As the Atlanta People of Color Community continues to grow, its needs change as well. The greatest of those needs is understanding and communication.

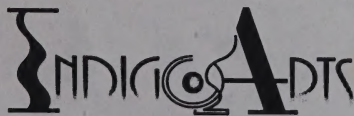

In The Life Atlanta in conjunction with Indigo Arts has decided to form the People of Color Community Network - an opportunity for representatives from various organizations to come together and share.

Share information about their various events - pot lucks, socials, poetry readings, fund-raisers and other projects that may be in the planning stages.

Hopefully this will give the people of color community and their allies a chance to get information out to their members in a timely manner, giving us the opportunity to support each other in our endeavors.

The People of Color Community Network will take place the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of each month @ 7:00 until 9:00

Donna, I want to thank you for making this go so smoothly. I hope all of QTS runs so well.

As far as I know your spelling of Adodi Muse is correct.

My bio follows as well as information re: Other Countries:

BIOGRAPHY

G.Winston James is Executive Director of the Other Countries: Black Gay Expression artists collective and a member of the John Oliver Killens Writers Workshop Inc. His prose is featured in HIS: Brilliant New Gay Fiction (Faber & Faber), Shade: An Anthology of Short Fiction by Gay Men of African Descent (Avon Books) and Waves: An Anthology of New Gay Fiction (Vintage Books). His poetry appears in Milking Black Bull: 11 Gay Black Poets (Vega Press) and two Lambda Literary Award-winning anthologies: Sojourner: Black Gay Voices in the Age of AIDS (Other Countries Press), and The Road Before Us: 100 Gay Black Poets (Galiens Press).

Other Countries is an organization devoted to the development, dissemination and preservation of literature and other forms of cultural expression of Gay men of African heritage. The group, which began as a writing workshop for Black Gay men in June of 1986, has for more than a decade in the midst of the AIDS crisis continued to provide a space for same-gender-loving artists to hone their skills, to bond, build community and to heal one another. Today, Other Countries is a growing community of artists and friends dedicated to the task of creating a visible and enduring cultural institution committed to the education, publication, presentation and promotion of Gay artists of African heritage, and to surmounting the barriers of prejudice through art, as well as community outreach.

Other Countries currently operates five ongoing programs: the free weekly Writing Workshop; the Book Publishing operation, with two anthologies in publication and a third expected in the fall of 1997; the Performance Group, mounting staged readings and performances locally and throughout the country; the Solstice Reading Series, combining open readings by area artists with the presentation of some of the most exciting voices in the Black Gay and Lesbian literary community, including Samuel Delany, E. Lynn Harris, Randall Kenan, Sapphire and Jacqueline Woodson; and the Education/Outreach committee, targeting services to youth and other underserved communities.

To become a member of Other Countries, or to make a tax-deductible donation, please send a check or money or made payable to Other Countries/New York Foundation for the Arts to: Other Countries, P.O. Box 3142, Church Street Station, New York, NY 10008-3142. Membership in the organization is offered at $20.00 annually.

For further information on programming, or to book performances, please call (718) 596-0342 ext. 25, or write to the above address.
